VOL. 32, NO. 48 — CAMPBELL, SANTA CLARA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA — FRIDAY, JULY 5, 1929

Pertinent Paragraphs

A new store opened in Campbell last week has so far received patronage to exceed the expectations of the charming family who are its proprietors. As time goes on and the store becomes better known its clientele will increase. It is not difficult for us to predict success for the new establishment because the owners have already provided the necessary elements—a clean, bright, attractive store; modern, well selected articles of apparel for men and women, and prices that compare very favorably with those in the citys. More power to them.

As a national holiday Independence Day, more commonly known as the "Fourth of July, seems to have lost its true significance and become merely an occasion for the shooting of fireworks and the making of "whoopee." Of course, there are always a number of Fourth of July "programs" at which, as a rule, pot-bellied politicians and ward heelers appear on the speakers' platform where they wave the flag and bleed freely for their country. To our mind the day could be celebrated very fittingly by a 12 hour sessoin of congress, convened for no other purpose than to repeal as many obsolete laws as they could handle—without arguing—in the given time.

The church, speaking as a whole, is very well represented in Campbell. For years the several churches in this village have enjoyed unusual success, due, in some measure, to the fact that most of our citizens believe in the teachings of Christ and really enjoy the church and its associations. The churches have the respect of those who do not attend. It would be a shame were Campbell's recognized churches to become objects of amusement to non-churchgoing citizens through mistaken comparison with a group of "converts" and "convertors" who gather in Campbell frequently for what have on several occasions appeared to be all-night meetings. Not very quiet ones, either.

From all appearances, the proposed Campbell police protection district has hit a snag. The tax which must be levied to raise funds to meet the expenses of such a district would not be very large, but even so there seem to be a goodly number of citizens who cannot see why a certain group of long suffering business and professional men should not continue to provide police protection for the whole town. Dissention in the ranks of the home guard has been the greatest element in keeping Campbell the village it is—not that it isn't a good little town—but there are those who would like to see it more than just a "good little town."

Again we offer the solution of incorporation. With the formation of a police district the various district taxes will be as much as the combined city taxes in incorporated towns of like size. Campbellites will be paying the bill without the advantages of incorporation. Those who yesterday "enjoyed" the continuous explosion of fireworks would perhaps like to have fireworks stricken from the local roster. It could be very easily accomplished—under incorporation.

That's all.

Local people were sorry to hear this week of the death of Steve Sundquist, former resident of this village. Mr. Sundquist, who operated a cleaning and pressing establishment here succumbed to heart failure in Reno Friday, according authentic reports.

LOCAL PEOPLE ARE INJURED IN SAN JOSE AUTOMOBILE CRASH

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Dodds, proprietors of the Campbell theater, acompanied by Mrs. Dodds' sister, Mrs. McNish, last Friday had the misfortune to be struck, while riding in their car, by another automobile in San Jose. The Campbell party was proceeding down San Carlos when a Dodge car, its driver disregarding the arterial stop sign, sped onto San Carlos from Vine street, striking the Dodds automobile on the left rear wheel. The latter car was tipped over and badly damaged.

Mrs. Dodds received a cracked rib, Mr. Dodds a gash on his forehead and Mrs. McNish sustained a fractured collar bone. They were treated at the San Jose hospital by Dr. Sheppard.

Campbell People At Watsonville Picnic

Mr and Mrs. P. H. Dunlap and Mr. and Mrs. Al Covey and family were among those from Campbell present at the goodwill picnic put on last Sunday by the Watsonville chamber of commerce. Percy was favorably mentioned in the ensuing issue of a Watsonville daily paper: "Percy Dunlap is a former Watsonville boy, now living in Campbell where he is one of the owners of a large garage and radio shop and is a director of the chamber of commerce."

It may be added that starting this week Mr. Dunlap and his partner, W. G. Smily, are local agents for the Frigidaire, General Motors electric refrigerator. Two very attractive models are on display in the radio room at the Service garage.

KIWANIS NOTES

With George Washington Burrow in the chair none but a patriotic program could be staged. The meeting was started off with several patriotic songs, led by song leader Hal Morton. In the absence of President Wiesendanger, Vice President Ralph Hyde officiated.

District Attorney Fred L. Thomas gave an interesting talk on the foundation and acts making for the patriotism of Americans. July 4 was the birth of our independence and in a sense the birth of a new independence in the world. The celebration of this day should instill love of government for every day of our lives. Danger of government comes from within the country and is born of individual selfishness, Mr. Thomas said.

Lou Shelley, asisted by the public affairs committee, Nic Hedegard, Ben Curry and Ted Gail will supply the program next Tuesday. Directors' meeting will be held Tuesday evening instead of Monday evening.

The L. B. Davidson, H. H. Singleton and C. W. Plummer cottages between Camp Evers and Mount Hermon on Bean creek were at first reported to have been destroyed by the fire which has been raging in the Santa Cruz mountains the past two or three days. Word received here yesterday from Ralph H. Hyde, local insurance man, reports all three cottages safe, with some damage to outbuildings.

TAXPAYER TELLS OF POLICE DIST. PLAN

Campbell, July 4, 1929

Editor the Press:

At last Monday's meeting of the board of supervisors the matter of a police protection district was brough up for hearing. As there was only one objector it was apparently favored by the peolpe of Campbell. However, when the question of raising the necessary funds to defray the expenses of such a district was discussed it was found that a tax upon the district was needed to raise the money, and immediately there arose the cry, "More Taxes!"

An explanation of the law governing the formation and operation of such a district, together with the actual costs to the average taxpayer, would be helpful at this time. To begin with the Campbell police district as outlined will have an assessed valuation of approximately $475,000, an amount slightly larger than the present fire district's assessment. The law provides that this district may raise by taxation not to exceed one per cent of the total assessed valuation or 47 and one half cents on the hundred for equiping such a district, this, however, must be done by an election of the voters inside the district. The police commissioners may without an election recommend the levying of one half of one per cent of 23 3-4 cents on the hundred assessed valuation, for maintenance of such a district, or in other words to pay salaries of officers, insurance, etc. It has been accurately computed that the everage taxpayer in the district would pay between five and six dollars per year extra tax for police protection. The total that can be raised without an election would be $1,116.50.

At the present time and for some years past an officer has been employed through the sponsorship of the chamber of commerce of Campbell and his salary paid by public subscription, the number of subscribers being a few over 30. No one can deny the psychological influence, to say the least, of having an officer on patrol duty in Campbell, for before the introduction of such protection we were faced with three or four burglaries each season, and since the establishment of patrol service none have occurred. This fact speaks for itself.

It is the opinion of the police commissioners that this police service is needed in this locality and to that end the petition was given to the board of supervisors for their consideration, and the hearing held. It is also the opinion of the commissioners that more than 30 people should share the expense of maintaining such a police protection. They therefore have recommended that a tax of 23 and three-quarters cents per hundred be levied on the district to raise $1,116.50 toward the maintenance of a police officer, and the balance of the salary be secured among the merchants, who possibly have the need of police protection more than the residential districts, and are willing to meet the balance.

The writer has paid $30 per year since the organizing of the present system ,and does not regret it as he feels that he has received his money's worth, nevertheless he does not feel that he, along with 30 others, should maintain police service any more than the same 30 should pay for lights, fire and school privileges.

Each and every taxpayer should seriously consider this matter and if he or she has any objection to the district being assessed as above stated, he or she should present themselves at the supervisors' office Monday, July 8, at 10 o'clock a. m., and voice their objection. Otherwise the supervisors will proceed to levy the tax as requested by the commissioners.

SEA SCOUTS CRUISE ON OPEN SEA FROM BAY TO SANTA CRUZ

The Campbell and San Jose Sea Scouts Saturday successfully navigated their 30 foot motor-sail boat over 80 miles of open sea from Alviso to Santa Cruz, arriving at their destination early Sunday morning.

Although the boys have taken other voyages this was the most strenuous and the logest yet attempted. Heavy ground swells during their 12 hour trip made it more difficult and on several occasions when the motor died the tossing around of the boat resulted in sea-sickness to all but three of the sailors. Alfred Beer was the fortunate youth from Campbell who escaped the ravages of mal de mer.

The craft had been rigged up by the local scouts, with Skipper Grattan in command. The boat was left in care of Alfred Beer and Elmer Sundquist at Santa Cruz, where it will be at the disposal of the boy scouts in camp near Swanton. At the end of the season the craft will be rturned to its moorings at Alviso by the Santa Cruz scouts.

Campbell lads taking the trip were Miles Standish, first officer, Alfred Beer, second officer, Harold Maxon, engineer, Henry Ruthnick, cook; Elmer Sundquist, Elwood Swain, Lloyd Brown and Brenton Goddard, local sailors, and Elmer Winton and Eddie Pracna of San Jose. Dennis Holler was the man responsible for the San Jose lads.

The GENERAL TIRE

—goes a long way to make friends

Speed

If you like an open road, in a car that can travel as fast as you care to drive it, you will enjoy it twice as much on Generals. If you have ever felt your tires at the end of a fast run, you know that speed means heat. By using only the purest friction and tread rubber in generous quantities, General reduces internal friction (the cause of heat in tires) to a minimum. With Generals you can travel far and fast with the comforting knowledge that they won't wither from heat when you need them most.
